

presents

Oral Medicine: Essential Knowledge for the General Practitioner with Maya Ramachandran, DMD

This course provides general practitioners with a foundational understanding of oral medicine, equipping them with the skills to identify, diagnose, and manage common oral lesions and orofacial pain disorders. Participants will learn to differentiate between various conditions, implement evidence-based treatment strategies, and determine when referral to a specialist is necessary.

October 15, 2025

Laurel Creek Country Club

5:30pm - Cocktails

6:00pm - General Meeting

6:45pm - General Presentation

Members: No charge

Non-members: $45

Please RSVP by October 10 and see email for additional information regarding dinner selection